Law Firm Opens New Satellite Office

September 17, 2010 – Twomey, Latham, Shea, Kelley, Dubin & Quartararo, LLP is pleased to announce the expansion of its law practice with the addition of a new office location conveniently located just off Exit 56 of the Long Island Expressway at 490 Wheeler Road (Route 111) in Hauppauge, New York.

“We have many clients from Western Suffolk County and New York City, so we felt it would be beneficial to offer legal assistance closer to their homes and businesses,” said Bryan Van Cott, a partner with the firm. “Our firm is proud to be part of the greater Long Island and New York community, and we look forward to continuing our long-term relationships with residents and local business owners in western Suffolk County and beyond.”

Twomey, Latham, Shea, Kelley, Dubin & Quartararo, LLP is the largest full-service law firm in eastern Suffolk County, and focuses on commercial litigation, zoning and land use, commercial and residential real estate, corporate transactions, estate planning and administration, taxation, elder law, business and succession planning, mediation, intellectual property including copyright and trademark law, environmental law as well as matrimonial and family law. The firm is located in Riverhead and has four satellite offices located in East Hampton, Southampton, Southold and Hauppauge.
