Zachary Mike is an Associate in the Corporate Group at Twomey, Latham, Shea, Kelley, Dubin & Quartararo LLP and focuses his practice on business and corporate law, M&A, restructurings, financings, and private placements. He has experience representing buyers and sellers at all stages in intricate M&A transactions including stock sales, membership interest sales, asset sales, and equity sales, with a concentration on providing guidance on complex corporate restructuring such as F reorganizations. Mr. Mike's practice also encompasses advising on corporate tax issues in connection with M&A transactions, as well as the drafting and negotiating of corporate documents including commercial leases, employment agreements, commercial contracts, and non-compete/non-solicit agreements.

Mr. Mike has experience working with not only lawyers, but also business and tax advisors on a variety of corporate and M&A transactions. Mr. Mike has assisted small to middle market companies, as well as private equity and startup companies, in successfully closing over $100 million in M&A deals and investments.

Mr. Mike received his Bachelor of Arts degree from the State University of New York at Binghamton and his Juris Doctor from the Maurice A. Deane School of Law at Hofstra University.

In law school, Mr. Mike was an editor of the Hofstra Journal of International Business and Law, where his note, Terroir and Tannins: How to Amend 27 C.F.R. to Bring French-Style Quality to The American Wine Consumer, was published.

Mr. Mike has a passion for music, which he has pursued throughout his career. He minored in Music, was a member of both Binghamton University's Chinese Music Ensemble and the award-winning a cappella group, the Binghamton Crosbys, and was a member of the Legally Sound a cappella group at Hofstra Law.

Mr. Mike is admitted to practice law in the State of New York and is a member of the New York State and New York City Bar Associations.
